(E-154)

5. Registration in New Party

The last day any person may register to vote and declare an intention to affiliate with a particular party in order to qualify that party to participate in the March 5, 2002 Primary Election candidate nominating process.

§§2187(d)(1), 5100(b)

Oct 5, 2001
(Suggested
Date)
(E-151)

6. Pre-election Residency Confirmation Procedure

The county elections official shall conduct a pre-election residency confirmation procedure as provided in Elections Code §2220. This procedure shall be completed by the 90th day immediately prior to the primary election.

The county elections official, at his or her discretion, shall not be required to mail a residency confirmation postcard to any voter who has voted at an election held within the last six months preceding the start of the confirmation procedure.

§§2220-2226

See Item #36 at December 5, 2001 for deadline.

Oct 8, 2001*
(E-148)

7. Governor's Proclamation - Issuance

By this date, the Governor shall issue a proclamation calling the primary election and shall state the time of the election and the offices to be filled and transmit a copy of the proclamation to the board of supervisors of each county. The Secretary of State will send an informational copy of the proclamation to each county election official. §12000

Oct 21, 2001*
(E-135)

8. Report of Registration - 154-day County Report

On this day, each county elections official shall send to the Secretary of State via Calvoter a summary statement of the number of persons registered as of October 2, 2001.

§2187(a), (c) & (d)(1)

Oct 21, 2001*
(E-135)

9. New Party Qualification

The last day for the Secretary of State to determine whether a new political party has qualified either by registration (86,212 registrations) or by filing a petition (862,113 signatures). §5100(b) & (c)

Oct 29 to
Nov 7, 2001
(E-127 to E-118)

12. Declarations of Intention - Partisan and Independent Candidates for State Constitutional, Legislative, or Insurance Commissioner Offices

During this period, each partisan and independent candidate for state constitutional, legislative or Insurance Commissioner offices shall pay the appropriate filing fee at the time of filing his or her declaration of intention to become a candidate for such office in the office of either the Secretary of State or the county elections official of the county in which the candidate is a resident. This declaration shall be filed on a form supplied by the Secretary of State or the county elections official. If this declaration is filed with the Secretary of State, the entire nonrefundable filing fee must be paid; Secretary of State cannot accept signatures, since the Secretary of State has no records against which to verify signatures on in-lieu petitions. §§8022(a), 8105, 8350

Independent legislative candidates must also file declarations of intention during this filing period; however, they are not required to file nomination papers until June 10-August 9.

The entire nonrefundable filing fee, represented by cash, signatures, or any prorated combination thereof, must be presented at the time of filing the declaration of intention with the county elections official. The county elections official shall send a copy of each declaration of intention filed by partisan and independent state constitutional, legislative, Insurance Commissioner candidates and the filing fee to the Secretary of State. §§8103, 8106

March 5, 2002 Primary Election Calendar

NOTE: Asterisked dates indicate that the deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a holiday; in most cases, the deadline will move forward to the next working day.

- Oct 29, 2001
(Suggested date)
(E-127)
13. State Measures - News Release Inviting Arguments
- On this date, the Secretary of State will issue a general news release requesting voters to submit an argument in each case where the argument for or against any statewide ballot measure has not been prepared and filed. §§9060-9063
- Oct 31, 2001
(E-125)
14. Notice of Parties Qualified
- The last day for the Secretary of State to prepare and send to each county elections official a notice designating the names of the political parties qualified to participate in the primary election. §12103
- Oct 31, 2001
(E-125)
15. County Central Committees – Green, Libertarian, Natural Law, and Reform Parties
- The last day for the Secretary of State to compute the number of members of the central committees to be elected in each county and to mail certificates to that effect to each county elections official, to the chairpersons of the state central committees, and to the chairpersons of record of each county central committee. §7770
- Nov 2, 2001
(E-123)
16. Disqualified Parties
- The last day for the Secretary of State, with the advice and consent of the Attorney General, to determine which parties, if any, are disqualified from participating in any primary election under §5102. §5200
- Nov 6, 2001
(E-119)
17. State Measures - Arguments Submission Deadline
- By this day, legislators and their appointee(s) must submit to the Secretary of State their arguments for and against each legislative measure that qualified by October 25 (E-131). This is also the last day for the proponents of each initiative measure to submit their arguments to the Secretary of State. Once submitted, no argument may be changed or amended. §9043
- Whenever the Legislature submits any measure to the voters of the state, the author of the measure and no more than two persons appointed by the author may draft an argument for its adoption, or the author of the measure may appoint no more than three persons to draft the argument. This argument shall not exceed 500 words in length. If the author of the measure desires separate arguments to be written in its favor by each person appointed, separate arguments may be written, but the combined length shall not exceed 500 words. §9041

If a legislative measure was not adopted unanimously, one member of each house who voted against it shall be appointed by the presiding officers of the respective houses to write an argument against the measure. This argument shall not exceed 500 words in length. §9042

If those members appointed to write an argument against the measure so choose, each may write a separate argument opposing it, but the combined length of the two arguments shall not exceed 500 words. §9042

If legislators and their appointee(s) do not file an argument for or against any legislative measure, any voter may request the Secretary of State for permission to prepare and file an argument for either side of any such measure on which no argument has been prepared. The Secretary of State shall grant permission unless two or more voters request permission to submit arguments on the same side of a measure, in which event the Secretary of State shall designate one of the voters to write the argument. §9044

Proponents of initiatives are given preference in submitting ballot arguments in favor of their measures. Opposing arguments are solicited from the public, with priority given to bona fide associations of citizens, followed by individual voters, when more than one argument is submitted against the initiative measure. §9067 registered to vote. Within ten days after receipt of a petition, the county elections official shall notify the candidate of any deficiency. Partisan candidates shall then cover the deficiency either by submitting a supplemental petition or by paying a prorated portion of the filing fee not later than December 7 (E -88). If the required number of in-lieu signatures or a sufficient combination of such signatures and the prorated filing fee have been filed by this date (November 7), the county elections official shall issue during the regular filing period (November 12 through December 7) the nomination papers provisionally. Any candidate who submits a number of valid in-lieu signatures equal to or exceeding the minimum number required by §8041 for his or her nomination paper and which meet party registration requirements shall not be required to file nomination papers.

§§8061, 8105, 8106(b)(3)

Nov 7, 2001
(E-118)

19. Declarations of Intention – Partisan and Independent Candidates for State Constitutional, Legislative, and Insurance Commissioner Offices

The last day on which a partisan or independent candidate may file a declaration of intention for a state constitutional, legislative, or Insurance Commissioner office.

§§8022(a), 8350

Nov 7, 2001
(E-118)

20. Declarations of Intention - Elections Official Sends to the Secretary of State

The last day for the county elections official to send to the Secretary of State the declarations of intention and the filing fees for all partisan and independent state constitutional, legislative, Insurance Commissioner candidates who filed with the county elections official unless the close of the filing period is extended.

§§8022(a), 8350

Nov 8 to
Nov 12, 2001*
(E-117 to E-113)

21. Declarations of Intention - Extension Period for Partisan and Independent Candidates for State Constitutional, Legislative, and Insurance Commissioner Offices this extension period. If failure to file a declaration of intention is because the incumbent has already served the maximum number of terms, there shall be no extension of the period for filing the declaration of intention. §§8022, 8350

Refer to the Term Limits section on pages 90-93 for a list of the offices that are affected by term limits.

Nov 11, 2001*
(E-114)

22. State Measures - Arguments Selected and Exchanged

If more than one argument for or against any measure has been filed by this date, the Secretary of State will select arguments for inclusion in the ballot pamphlet and will exchange arguments with the opposing authors so that they may prepare and submit rebuttal arguments not exceeding 250 words. §§9067, 9069

Nov 12 to
Dec 7, 2001
(E-113 to E-88)

23. Declaration of Candidacy and Nomination Papers – Candidate Filing

During this period, all partisan candidates must file their declarations of candidacy for office and circulate their nomination papers and deliver them for filing with the county elections official. All candidates except those for state constitutional, legislative office or office of Insurance Commissioner must pay the nonrefundable filing fees or present in-lieu signatures at the time they receive their nomination papers from the county elections official. The number of valid in-lieu signatures any candidate obtains may be subtracted from the number required for his or her nomination papers if they meet party registration requirements. A candidate shall not be required to execute a nomination paper if the number of in-lieu signatures equals or exceeds the minimum number required by §8041. All nomination documents for state offices, Representative in Congress, Legislature, and member of the Board of Equalization are to be left with the county elections official for filing with the Secretary of State.
